Small Business Week

Volume 3 Issue 2

SADC Pontiac and Pontiac CLD have planned events for Small Business Week, which begins October 18.

Small Business Week was created to promote entrepreneurship in Quebec. The event aims to provide businesspeople with the tools and information they need to maintain success and competitiveness in their economic environment.

This year there are two breakfast seminars planned as well as a cocktail with an awards presentation.

For more information visit the SADC, CLD or chamber web sites.

Launch of the SADC Innovative Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award

As part of its 25th anniversary festivities, SADC Pontiac is launching the Innovative Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize and reward young entrepreneurs who excel in their professional life by using their creativity.

The winner will receive $1,000 for professional communication and marketing services.

Deadline: October 15, 2010

To participate in the contest: www.sadc.commercepontiac.ca

The Pontiac Chamber of Commerce will provide a free membership to the winner.

Benefits that small business can take advantage of

The Canadian Chamber assists businesses of all sizes in improving their bottom line through a number of benefit programs. These include: preferred rates on credit and debit transactions; savings on gasoline; home, auto, and travel insurance; pre-paid legal services; and SME-oriented online training opportunities. Along with offering these affinity programs directly to its corporate members, the Canadian Chamber makes these benefit programs available for its local chamber of commerce/board of trade members to use with their members.

Aside from a healthy balance sheet and a viable business plan, marketing is another important tool that small businesses owners can use to grow their business. Effective networking can be a small business owner's best form of marketing as it is affordable and productive. Membership in a local chamber of commerce/board of trade provides plenty of opportunities to engage with the local business community, develop relevant contacts, and obtain personal referrals. Small business owners will attest that word of mouth advertising is invaluable and highly effective.

As a member of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, here are just some of the benefit programs you can start taking advantage of:

TD Merchant Services and First Data: preferred pricing program

Esso – Imperial Oil Gas discounts: enjoy 3 cents per litre fuel discount off the retail posted pump price at Esso service stations

SCORE – Group Insurance Plan: A variety of plans are available to all Chamber members, regardless of the enterprise size, and is particularly advantageous to companies with fewer than 8 employees, where, traditionally, group rates have not been available.

Telebec Discount: enjoy 65% savings off your long distance from your business line

Business to Business Discounts: Members offer discounts for products or services to other members

Please check the web site for more information on any of the above benefits or email: info@pontiacchamberofcommerce.ca

“Pay It Forward” Program

Do you know of a business you believe would benefit from a membership in the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce?

By anonymously paying for the membership of a non-member through the “Pay It Forward” program you will enable the business you designate to enjoy the services, benefits and discounts offered through the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce. The following year the business will receive a renewal notice and be encouraged to pay its own membership. At some point in the future, the “Pay It Forward” recipient might wish to return the favour by sponsoring another business in the Pontiac.
