Local Business in the News

Pontiac Home Bakery was featured in the Canadian Living Magazine for having some of Canada's best shortbread.

"We've always loved our shortbread cookies, and they are our most popular cookie at Christmas, but WOW!!! What a shock, and an honour to be featured in Canadian Living Magazine... check pages 114-115 of the January 2013 edition! Thank you to those who nominated us."

Business Seminars

The Chamber is planning many business workshops, seminars and breakfasts in the coming year. If you would like to be a presenter or host – to share your expertise and business knowledge to other business people, assisting other local businesses to be more successful in their own business – please contact Ginger at 819-6472312 or bizdev@pontiacchamberofcommerce.ca

It could be a business breakfast, luncheon, 5-7 event, an open house or evening event. It can also be held anywhere throughout the Pontiac – you could host an event at your own business! There are many local restaurants who can cater these events.

This is the perfect opportunity for you to introduce yourself and your business to other local business entrepreneurs.
